Upcoming Online Classes with Your Video Expert

I am pleased to announce the topics for the next several months - these webinars or on-line learning sessions will provide a thorough lesson while you participate from the comfort and convenience in your home or office.

If you are unable to attend any session live, you can still register to review the streaming video recording of the lesson, to download and view on your computer or to even order a DVD for viewing as you please! An hour of expert instruction for only $10 - an incredible value. These webinars will broadcast live on Wednesdays from 9:30AM to 10:30AM Pacific Time. For current listing of upcoming webinar lessons click here.
